*These emphases can be adjusted to any month to best suit your church's calendar.

Sign up for the NWIL eVoice at nwilnaz.org and watch for opportunities to attend missionary deputation services at neighboring churches. Better yet, watch for opportunities to host a missionary at your church! These times can make missions come alive for your people.

Join the NWIL NMI President Page on Facebook. Follow missionaries on social media. Many post regular updates and photos of their activities and ministry.

Keep missions in front of your people. Subscribe to NMI Central to receive weekly updates on prayer needs and praise reports from around the world. Go to www.nazarene.org and search NMI Central to sign up.

For all things NMI, check out the denominational page here:

<https://nazarene.org/who-we-are/organization/ministries/nazarene-missions-international> You can find information that describes what NMI is; its impact around the world; how to involve children and youth in missions; what are The Memorial Roll, Distinguished Service Award, etc.; and where to find resources. There is a FAQ tab for local NMI presidents with answers to questions such as what is the role of the NMI president, how to organize a local council, and more. Check Nazarene Compassionate Ministries (ncm.org) for child sponsorship and other giving opportunities.

The Church of the Nazarene has been global from its founding and is organized into six regions in 165 world areas. Each week, over 2.7 million Nazarenes worship in more than 212 languages. As a local NMI president, it is your responsibility and privilege to connect the people of your church to Nazarenes around the world through prayer, giving, engaging children and youth, and care and connection.
